

Walking in Snowdonia

I'm quite keen to organise a walking trip for our members to Wales next year. It's difficult to give exact details until numbers are known but my thoughts are:

5 day duration including travelling to Wales.

The walks/group would be based in Southern Snowdonia, an area I know well.

Numerous scenic walks are available to suit everyone, distances between 4 - 10 miles.

There is coast, lakes and mountains with a few places of historical interest to visit.

I would hope be able to to arrange a group walk with the local Ramblers group <http://www.meirionnyddramblers.org.uk>

Transport and accommodation to be arranged when numbers are known. Options to travel by car provided we have a few volunteers or hire a minibus. There are plenty of places to stay to suit everyone's expectations.

Date to be decided, but I would suggest dates outside school holidays.

There are probably a number of other points to consider but I thought that the first step would be to find out if there is any interest amongst our group.

If you are in the slightest bit interested please contact me directly in the first instance at wiltraws@hotmail.com

Thanks for reading,
